

Eduardo Rojas (www.RojasPiano.com)

Piano

Teaching Philosophy/Style

Eduardo has the unique ability to teach all types of students and personalities. Depending on the students' needs, Eduardo is able to adjust his style to accommodate all types of learners whether you are learning piano for competition, professional performances, or for fun. Not only does Eduardo have a strong focus on technique and quality of sound but also on the musicality and excitement that music brings.

Performance/Teaching Experience

A native of Colombia, Eduardo, considered by the Dallas Morning News "clearly a pianist with considerable skill and force of personality" has appeared with orchestras of Colombia, Ecuador, Bolivia, Chile, Panama, Puerto Rico, Canada and United States. Noteworthy performances included appearances with the National Symphony Orchestra of Colombia, Bogota Philharmonic, Valle Philharmonic, Panama National Orchestra, Colombia Youth Philharmonic Orchestra, Van Cliburn Foundation, New Philharmonic Orchestra of Irving, Great Lakes Symphony, American Wind Symphony, Manitowoc Symphony Orchestra, Flower Mound Orchestra, Dallas Winds, Orpheus Chamber Singers and Dallas Chamber Symphony among others.

Dallas Chamber Symphony

current

Principal pianist

Tarrant County College

current

Teaching faculty Piano and Music Appreciation
Collaborative pianist for opera program

Southern Methodist University

2012-2013

Collaborative pianist

More experience upon request

Education

Master Piano Performance

2011

Texas Christian University – Fort Worth, Texas

Artist Diploma Piano

2009

Texas Christian University – Fort Worth, Texas

Bachelor of Arts – Music Education

2003

Cauca University – Popayan, Colombia